Shares and voting rights

The Company has issued 158,917,275 shares, each carrying one vote. The shares also rank equally in other respects. As at the date of this notice, the Company does not own any of its own shares.

Only those who are shareholders in the Company five business days prior to the General Meeting, i.e. on 11 April 2024 (the “Record Date”), are entitled to attend and vote at the General Meeting, cf. Section 5-2 of the Norwegian Public Limited Companies Act. A shareholder who wish to attend and vote at the general meeting must be registered in the shareholder register (VPS) at the Record Date or have reported and documented an acquisition as per the Record Date. Shares that are acquired after the Record Date do not entitle the holder to attend and vote at the general meeting.

If shares are held through a nominee in the VPS register, cf. the Norwegian Public Limited Liability Companies Act Section 4-10, and the beneficial owner wishes to attend the General Meeting, the beneficial owner must ask the nominee to notify the Company of this within two business days prior to the date of the General Meeting. Thereafter, the shareholder must ask for their username and password for Lumi AGM login by sending an email to genf@dnb.no. Shareholders who have acquired shares after this notice was sent can also obtain username and password from genf@dnb.no.

Decisions on voting rights for shareholders and representatives are made by the person opening the meeting, whose decision may be reversed by the General Meeting by majority vote.

Shareholders are entitled to present alternatives to the Board’s proposals under the various items on the agenda of the General Meeting, provided that the alternative proposals are within the scope of the matter under consideration.

Attendance and registration

The online participation is being organised by DNB Bank ASA, Registrar's Department and its supplier Lumi. By attending the online General Meeting, shareholders will be able to listen to a live audiocast of the meeting, see the presentation, submit written questions relating to the items on the agenda and cast their votes in the real time. All shareholders who intend to attend the online General Meeting must register their attendance no later than 16 April 2024 at 4:00 PM (CEST). Shareholders can register attendance online through the Company's website www.scatec.com or the VPS Investor Services. Attendance can also be registered by completing and submitting the registration form or proxy form attached to this notice as Appendix 1 in accordance with the instructions set out therein.

Shareholders must be logged in before the meeting starts. If you are not logged in before the general meeting starts, you will not be able to participate. Log in starts an hour before. See separate guide on how shareholders can participate electronically, cf. appendix to this notice and posted on the Company's website, www.scatec.com. In order to attend the virtual general meeting, shareholders need to access the Lumi AGM solution on: <https://dnb.lumiagm.com/186985629> and click "JOIN". Shareholders must identify themselves using the reference number and PIN code from VPS, see further information in the separate guide for electrical participation.

Representation by proxy and advanced voting

Shareholders who are unable to attend the General Meeting may authorise the chairperson (or whomever the chairperson designates) or another person to vote for its shares at the General Meeting. Proxies may be submitted electronically through VPS investor service or by completing and submitting the registration or proxy form attached as Appendix 1. If not submitted electronically, the proxy must be in writing, dated, signed and submitted no later than at the General Meeting. If the shareholder has not previously registered its attendance, the proxy form must be received by the Company no later 4:00 PM (CEST) on Tuesday 16 April 2024.

Shareholders who wish to cast their votes in advance can do so electronically through VPS investor services no later than 4:00 PM (CEST) on Tuesday 16 April 2024.
